ABOUT KUMBH MELA

THE WORLD'S GREATEST SPIRITUAL GATHERING

The Kumbh Mela is the world's largest spiritual and cultural gathering, celebrated in a cycle of 12 years at four sacred locations in India. It is a confluence of faith, devotion, and ancient traditions that continues to inspire millions across the globe.

SIGNIFICANCE OF KUMBH

DIVINE ORIGIN

Rooted in the Samudra Manthan (churning of the cosmic ocean), where drops of Amrit (nectar) fell at four sacred places

SPIRITUAL PURIFICATION

A holy dip in the sacred rivers during Kumbh is believed to wash away sins & bring moksha (liberation).

UNITY IN DIVERSITY

People from all walks of life, cultures, & countries come together in the spirit of devotion and harmony.

ANCIENT TRADITION

A tradition that has been celebrated for thousands of years, mentioned in our ancient scriptures.

GLOBAL ATTRACTION

A symbol of India's timeless heritage, attracting spiritual seekers, travelers, scholars, and photographers worldwide.

FOUR SACRED KUMBH DESTINATIONS

PRAYAGRAJ

Triveni Sangam of Ganga, Yamuna & Saraswati

HARIDWAR

On the banks of the sacred River Ganga

UJJAIN

On the banks of the holy River Shipra

NASHIK

On the banks of the sacred River Godavari

Nashik will host the upcoming Simhashta Kumbh in 2027, continuing this divine legacy.

Largest peaceful gathering of humanity

Millions of devotees participate from around the world

Held once every 12 years at each destination

A timeless blend of faith, culture, and tradition

A photographer's and creator's paradise

“

Kumbh is not just an event, it is an experience of divinity, devotion and eternal tradition.

ABOUT NASHIK KUMBH

A Divine Confluence of Faith, Tradition & Eternity

Nashik holds a unique and revered place in the history of Kumbh Mela. It is one of the four holy cities where the Kumbh is celebrated, based on the celestial alignment of Jupiter, the Sun and the Moon.

Here, the sacred River Godavari flows with divine grace, carrying the blessings of sages, saints and seekers for centuries.

WHY NASHIK?

LAND OF LORD SHIVA
Home to Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga, one of the 12 sacred Jyotirlingas of India.

GODAVARI RIVER
Considered a lifeline and sacred river, believed to purify and liberate the soul.

ANCIENT HERITAGE
A city of mythological significance with a rich legacy of saints, temples and spiritual wisdom.

CRORES OF DEVOTEES
Every Kumbh, Nashik welcomes millions of devotees, saints and spiritual seekers.

DIVINE EXPERIENCE
A once-in-12-years opportunity to take a holy dip, seek blessings and experience moksha.
